Dearest Brother Servant of the Most High,

I wanted to write to you before but I had to delay on account that I wanted to give you some news of the Master: but unfortunately I had received nothing yet, that which I cannot really understand. I wonder if He wrote and the letter be lost or He did not write yet. Well, I do not know; but be assured that as soon as I will get news from that I will communicate them to you immediately.

Besides that I have nothing extra. I arrived in New York last Saturday and have found nothing very satisfactory yet. If you write to me soon, kindly tell me how you find New York.

I hope that all the brothers in Canada are well and happy. Give them my best regards and wishes.

I did not get any news from O. R. yet, I am only expecting.

What are you doing now? I hope that my great friend and his dame, Mr. Garmin is well and still very faithful in the great Teaching. Let me bid you.

Good nights with a fraternal kiss of friendship and brotherhood.

Your affectionate
Gustave
